Randy Rierson's Transition into Casualty Brokerage!

Maxum is pleased to announce that Randy Rierson has transitioned into the Casualty Brokerage Division as Director of Underwriting.

Randy comes to Maxum with more than 40 years of industry experience, most recently with Chubb Insurance Company. His insurance background includes underwriting and management positions with carriers including experience as both a retail agency and a wholesale broker. Randy will remain in the Alpharetta office and report to Dawn Brost, Head of Casualty Brokerage. He can be reached at 678-597-4612 or rrierson@mxmsig.com.

Please join Maxum in welcoming Randy to the Casualty Brokerage team!

Maxum has five underwriting divisions including Binding, Casualty Brokerage, Professional Liability, Management Liability and Special Property. Coverages written include general and excess liability, property and casualty binding authorities, professional liability, layered and shared primary and excess property catastrophe. Coverages of directors & officers' liability, employment practices liability and fiduciary liability are written through the Management Liability division.

About Maxum Specialty Insurance Group
